

Host Overview and Application - Dancing For Birth™ Workshop

Thank you for your enthusiasm to bring the Workshop to your community! Please e-mail this form (2 pages) to info@dancingforbirth.com or mail to: Dancing For Birth World Headquarters, 2427 Glen Arden Drive. St. Louis, MO 63146

Benefits to the Host in consideration for providing a classroom and ten or more participants.

- You and your local colleagues incur no long distance travel expenses in order to attend the workshop.
- We promote You (or your business or organization) as the Host of the workshop.
- We will post your logo on our Event Home page. Please e-mail the image saved as a .pdf or .jpg format, along with this application.

Responsibilities of the Host

- Provide a suitable classroom (at no cost to Dancing For Birth). The classroom can be one you own, rent, borrow, or secure the donation of.
- Promote in your area, in order to meet our minimum of ten registrants

DFB is also willing to promote a Sponsor, which is a designation given to a facility with which you secure a classroom donation. Hospitals, Birth Centers, Women's Centers, Community Centers, and Schools have been sponsors of our workshops.

Benefits to a Sponsor in consideration for donating a classroom:

- Your local staff incur no long distance travel expenses in order to attend the workshop because we come to your facility.
- We promote your facility as the Sponsor of the workshop.
- We will post your logo on our Event Home page. Please e-mail the image saved as a .pdf or .jpg format, along with this application.
- Your staff (who register for the training and become Certified DFB Instructors) can hold weekly DFB classes at your facility (optional).
